Hey there!

I'm Sophia, a passionate 27-year-old wedding photographer based just outside DC in Northern Virginia. Capturing love stories through my lens is not just a job but a profound joy that I cherish with every wedding I photograph. It's been six years and I've photographed over 100 weddings which seems unreal! I also love travel which is why all of my wedding packages don't come with travel fees.

My journey into photography began with a fascination for visual storytelling and a deep love for artistic expression. The photography gene runs in my family, my great-grandfather had his own photography studio in Panama and from there, knowledge of photography was passed down through the generations of my family to me. I believe in always having fun and prioritizing a stress-free lifestyle which translates into my photography style — vibrant, authentic, and joyful.

What TO Expect

A PHOTOGRAPHER WHO GETS YOU

From the moment we connect, you can expect someone who truly gets you. I'm not here to force awkward poses or interrupt your vibe; I'm here to capture the real stuff—those stolen glances, belly laughs, and happy tears. Think of me as your trusted sidekick, blending seamlessly into your day to catch all the epic moments without stealing the spotlight. Whether you're breaking tradition or going all out with your unique style, I'm here to cheer you on and make sure your vision shines.

YOUR BIGGEST ADVOCATE (AND HYPE PERSON)

On your wedding day, I'm not just a photographer; I'm your number-one fan. Need help wrangling your wedding party or fixing a flyaway hair? I've got you. Feeling nervous? I'll remind you how amazing you are. Want a hype squad during your first dance? Count me in. My goal is to create a stress-free, joyful environment where you can just be yourself while I handle the rest. Together, we'll make magic happen and have a blast doing it!

ENGAGEMENT SESSION

WHY ENGAGEMENT SESSIONS MATTER

Engagement sessions are so much more than just a warm-up for your wedding day—they're the secret to amazing photos and a smooth experience! This is our chance to figure out what poses feel natural for you, what angles you love, and what makes you shine in front of the camera. You'll get a feel for how I work, and I'll learn how to bring out your personalities in the best way possible. By the time your wedding rolls around, we'll already have a flow, making the day effortless and fun. Plus, you'll walk away with stunning photos that capture this special chapter of your love story!

Engagement sessions are a time to discover what makes you both shine, practice those poses that feel the most natural, and create a foundation of trust that will make your wedding day photography effortless and joyful. While I truly believe these sessions are invaluable, I also know every couple's story is different. If timing or circumstances make it tricky to fit one in, that's okay—I'll still work my hardest to ensure your wedding photos capture your love beautifully and authentically.

Wedding Day

A BLEND OF REAL MOMENTS AND TIMELESS PORTRAITS

On your wedding day, expect a mix of candid, emotional storytelling and beautifully composed portraits. I'll be there to capture everything—the quiet anticipation while getting ready, the joy of your first look, and the epic dance moves at your reception. My goal is to document the day as it unfolds naturally, so you can relive not just the moments but also the feelings every time you look at your photos. At the same time, we'll carve out time for those iconic shots of you and your partner, your wedding party, and the details you've poured your heart into.

A SEAMLESS AND STRESS-FREE EXPERIENCE

From the start of your day to the last big moment, I work behind the scenes to keep things flowing smoothly. I'll guide you through poses when needed, but I'll also step back and let the magic happen naturally. You won't have to worry about missed moments or awkward transitions—I've got your back, ensuring you feel comfortable and confident every step of the way. My focus is on helping you stay present and enjoy every second while creating a collection of photos that feel as genuine and beautiful as your love story.

Claudia + Cooper

FEATURED COUPLE

CLAUDIA & COOPER

It's been two years, and C & C's stunning photos are still getting published regularly in local magazines. These two tied the knot at their local church before heading to the waterfront to snap some cute photos and have their reception at the Historic Inns of Annapolis. Cheers!

Tips + Tricks

TRUST THE PROCESS

Let your photographer guide you through poses and prompts—these aren't about stiff smiles but creating moments where your connection truly shines. The more you focus on each other, the better your photos will be.

SCHEDULE BUFFER TIME

Give yourself extra wiggle room in your timeline to avoid stress and allow for spontaneous moments. Some of the best photos come from unplanned laughter, sneaky kisses, or quiet reflection.

KEEP ESSENTIALS HANDY

A quick touch-up kit with blotting paper, lipstick, and a comb can be a lifesaver. Feeling polished helps you feel confident, which absolutely shines in photos.

TAKE YOUR TIME AND BREATHE

Wedding days can feel like a whirlwind, but pausing to soak in the moment will not only help you stay present but also ensure your photos reflect your natural, relaxed vibe.

EMBRACE NATURAL MOVEMENT

Don't worry about holding every pose perfectly—walking hand-in-hand, dancing, or simply leaning into each other creates authentic, dynamic shots. The goal is to have fun, not feel like a statue.

BE UNAPOLOGETICALLY YOURSELVES

Whether that's cracking jokes, sneaking away for a private moment, or showing off your signature dance moves, the more you lean into what makes your love story unique, the more meaningful (and fun!) your photos will be.

RAVE REVIEWS

“SOPHIA IS SO TALENTED AND WE HAD SUCH AN AMAZING EXPERIENCE TAKING ENGAGEMENT PICTURES WITH HER! MY JAW DROPPED WHEN I SAW THE PHOTOS! SHE WAS VERY PROFESSIONAL, HELPFUL, KIND AND TALENTED. THE FINAL PHOTOS WERE ABSOLUTELY BEAUTIFUL AND SHE EXCEEDED MY EXPECTATIONS. I HIGHLY RECOMMEND HER SERVICES!”

-CHELSEA & JUAN CARLOS

“Sophia made our day so special. We found her Instagram profile and fell in love with her style. Vivid, professionally edited photos that capture the most important days of your life! Sophia arrived on time and paid attention to any request or suggestion that we had. It felt like Sophia was an old friend of ours - she was helping us stay on track, gather requests for the pictures, suggested awesome photo ideas! We are looking forward to working with Sophia again! One of the most amazing experiences of our lives! Thank you, Sophia!”

LET ME MEET YOUR PET!

If you're thinking about including your dog or other furry (or feathery) friends in your wedding, DO IT! I LOVE animals. Years before I became a wedding photographer, I did full-time volunteer work at the Humane Society. That's where I met my first pet dog of my own, a beagle named Daisy. Now I'm a dog mom to a sweet 6 year old cockapoo named Leo.

I love capturing engagement sessions and weddings with a special focus on pets. Whether it's a dog in a cute bowtie walking down the aisle or a sweet first look between a couple and their four-legged friend, I aim to capture those heartwarming scenes that highlight the love and joy pets bring. Pets are family, and I'm dedicated to making sure they're part of your wedding story. Let's create photos together that not only show your love but also celebrate the furry friends who mean so much to you.
